

query time versus LISA k

